

Recognising right angles in the environment

Look at this photograph. Write down as many objects you can see that have right angles.

Discuss your findings with someone else.

Now write down ten objects in the room that have right angles.

